

Chris Offer

Past Chair of The Rotary Foundation Peace Centers

Chris is past chair of the Rotary Foundation Peace Centers committee. He previously served a 3-year term as chair of the Rotary Peace Major Gifts Initiative Committee. The committee's goal is to raise US$50 million for the Rotary Peace Centers and Rotary's peace area of focus. He is a member of the board of directors of The Rotary Foundation Canada.

Chris has served on a variety of Rotary committees involved in training, fundraising and membership development. He is a member of the Rotary Club of Ladner in Metro Vancouver. He served as Governor of District 5040.

He has been a Rotary volunteer in Philippines, Russia, China, Laos, and India. He was part of a team including WHO, CDC and Gates Foundation evaluating the polio surveillance initiative in Nigeria. He served on similar polio surveillance teams in South Sudan and Sudan.

Chris retired from the Vancouver Police after 31 years of police service. He served in a variety of senior operational and administrative positions.

He has a degree in Criminology, Graduate Diploma in Public Sector Management and a Master of Arts in Public Administration.

Chris' wife Penny served as District Governor in 2010-11. Her career was in health care administration. Penny and Chris are members of The Rotary Foundation Arch Klumph Society and Legacy Society.